DO NOT DISTURB: FUTURE ARTISTS AT WORK!
Free workshops to inspire young artists

Hamilton, N.Y. – The Picker Art Gallery at Colgate University will feature weekly after-school art workshops this fall to provide opportunities for students (ages 6-10) to further their art experience through various hands-on gallery activities. The free workshops will be held in the Dana Arts Center, room 305, at 3:15-4:30 p.m. on the following Mondays:

September 17, 24
October 1, 15, 22, 29
November 5

Using resources from current gallery exhibitions, each session will begin with an up-close gallery visit and then progress to the Picker “studio” to experiment with drawing, painting, printmaking, or collage.

For more information about these workshops or to register, contact Melissa Davies at 315-228-7447 or email at mbdavies@mail.colgate.edu.
